2. Contract between Customer, the Company and the Consignor:

- (a) Subject to clause 2(e), a Contract is created between the Customer and the Consignor (if the Consignor is a different Person to the Customer) at the point where the first of the following occurs:
 - (i) the Customer or the Consignor issues a purchase order, Storage Order or a packing list or accepts a Quotation provided by the Company for Transport Services or Storage Services; or
 - (ii) the Customer or Consignor delivers the Goods to the Company or any of its Related Bodies Corporate or Sub-Contractors and the Company accepts the Goods or the Company collects the Goods from the Customer or the Consignor.
- (b) Subject to clause 2(c), the Contract incorporates these conditions and their terms in any Consignment Note and Storage Order. If there is any inconsistency between anything in these conditions and anything in any Consignment Note, Storage Order or any other document then these conditions always prevail to the extent of the inconsistency unless otherwise expressly agreed by the parties in writing.
- (c) Where the Goods are going to be Transported by air freight or sea freight then the Special Conditions in relation to air freight and sea freight (as applicable) are also incorporated into the Contract. If there is any inconsistency between anything in these conditions and anything in the Special Conditions, then the Special Conditions always prevail to the extent of the inconsistency unless otherwise expressly agreed by the parties in writing.
- (d) The Company does not accept any terms or conditions which the Customer or the Consignor proposes unless those terms have been expressly agreed to in writing by the Company.
- (e) Where the Customer is not the same Person as the Consignor:
 - (i) the Consignor also is bound in the same way as the Customer under these conditions, including in respect of Charges. The liability of the Customer and Consignor is joint and several. The Carrier has the same rights against the Consignor as it has against the Customer as set out in these conditions.

(iii) the Customer warrants and represents that:

- a. it enters into this Contract on its own account and as agent for and on behalf of the Consignor; and
- b. it has made the Consignor aware of these conditions and the Consignor accepts these conditions and agrees to be a party to this Contract.
 - (i) if, for any reason, any provision in these conditions is not enforceable by the Company against either the Customer or the Consignor the other one of them shall nevertheless remain fully liable;
 - (ii) certain obligations in the conditions may be required to be performed by the Consignor instead of or together with the Customer; and
 - (iii) the Company has entered into this Contract in reliance upon this clause 2(e).

3. Provision of the Services

- (a) The Company agrees to provide the Services to the Customer and the Consignor subject to the terms of the Contract.
- (b) The Company:
 - (i) may subcontract any aspect of the Services work to a Sub-Contractor where the Company considers it reasonable or convenient to do so; or
 - (ii) may decline the provision of any aspect of the Services or depart from any instructions given to it by the Customer or the Consignor in circumstances where it considers that action is prudent or necessary or considers that action to be in the Customer's or Consignor's interests.

4. The Company is the Customer's and the Consignor's agent

The Customer and the Consignor acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) all Services provided by the Company to the Customer and the Consignor under this Contract are provided by the Company strictly in its capacity as the Customer's and the Consignor's agent and in no other capacity whatsoever; and
- (b) all contracts that are entered into by the Company with Service Providers or anyone else as part of the Services (Services Contracts) are contracts:
 - (i) entered into by the Company for and on behalf of the Customer and the Consignor in its capacity as the Customer's and the Consignor's agent and the Customer and the Consignor grant the Company all of the authority that the Company needs to enter into Services Contracts for and on behalf of the Customer and Consignor as the Customer's and the Consignor's agent; and
 - (ii) that bind the Customer and the Consignor as principals and directly and respectively entitle them to all of the contractual benefits and directly expose them to contractual liability as if they had each personally executed or otherwise entered into each contract in place of the Company; and
 - (iii) in relation to which the Customer and the Consignor agree to indemnify the Company under the terms of this Contract against any personal liability that the Company may have to any Services Provider as a consequence of having entered into a Services Contract as the Customer's and Consignor's disclosed or undisclosed agent.
- (c) if the Company charges the Customer or Consignor a fixed price for any Services that are to be provided under any Services Contract then that shall not, of itself, mean that or constitute evidence that, the Company is acting as a principal or as an agent of the Services Provider with respect to the provision of the relevant Services.

5. Transport or Storage Services for the Customer and Consignor

Without limiting anything in clause 4, the Customer and the Consignor agree that:

- (a) the Company may, as part of the Services and as the Customer's and Consignor's agent, organise and arrange for Transport or Storage Services in relation to any Goods to be provided by it or by any of its Related Bodies Corporate;
- (b) neither the Company nor any of the Company's Related Bodies Corporate are common carriers and the Company and its Related Bodies Corporate do not have or assume any liability as common carriers under any circumstances; and
- (c) except to the extent provided for in clause 24, the Company is not liable to the Customer or the Consignor for any Loss, damage, cost or expense of any kind whatsoever that arises out of any act or omission including any negligent or otherwise wrongful act or omission on the part of the Company or any of the Company's Related Bodies Corporate or any of their respective officers, agents, employees or contractors in relation to anything concerning the Goods, Transport or Storage.

6. Company has Sole and Absolute Discretion

Subject to any express instructions or conditions agreed in writing between the parties, the Company shall have sole and absolute discretion in respect of all matters and arrangements relating to the handling, Transportation and Storage of the Goods and the provision of the Services.

7. Ownership of Goods

The Customer and the Consignor each enter into this Contract expressly warranting that:

- (a) one of them is the Owner of the Goods; or
- (b) in the case that neither of them owns the Goods, that one of them is authorised by the Owner to enter into this Contract on their own respective accounts and as agent for the Owner.

8. Chain of Responsibility

- (a) Where the Services involve arranging for Transport or Storage in Australia, the Company, the Customer and the Consignor acknowledge and agree that each of them may have obligations under the Chain of Responsibility Law and each party must comply with its obligations under the Chain of Responsibility Law.
- (b) The Customer and the Consignor must use their respective reasonable endeavours to ensure that their officers, employees, contractors, agents and related Bodies Corporate (other than the Company) comply with any directions, procedures or policies advised or notified to them by the Company with respect to packing, securing, loading or unloading of the Goods or entry into, use of, or egress from any premises.

9. Goods Details

- (a) The Customer and the Consignor, warrant the accuracy and completeness of all descriptions, values and other particulars furnished to the Company for customs, consular, regulatory and any other purposes concerning the Goods, the Services, any Transport services or any Storage services (Goods Details).
- (b) The Company and all of its officers, agents, employees, Sub-Contractors and Related Bodies Corporate who are involved in the provision of the Services or who are involved in the provision of any Transport Services or Storage Services are entitled to rely on and assume the accuracy and completeness of all Goods Details supplied to the Company or of its officers, agents, employees, Sub-Contractors and Related Bodies Corporate by the Customer or the Consignor in relation to the Goods or any Transport Services or Storage Services. The Company is not responsible for verifying the details or their accuracy or completeness of any Goods Details and is not required under any circumstances to try to verify the accuracy or completeness of any Goods Details

(c) The Customer and the Consignor acknowledge and agree that:

- (i) any signature or confirmation of receipt or acceptance of the Goods by the Company its officers, agents, employees, Sub-Contractors and Related Bodies Corporate will only ever be regarded as evidence of and an acknowledgment of the number of Goods items received and evidence of nothing else, and
- (ii) if any of the Goods are valuable Goods (accepted subject to clause 21), perishable Goods or Dangerous Goods, the Customer and the Consignor must advise the Company of this within a reasonable time prior to the delivery or collection of the Goods and prior to the commencement of any Transport or Storage Services (as applicable) and the Company shall not be obliged to accept such Goods for Transport or Storage (as provided in clause 20).

(d) The Customer and the Consignor each respectively indemnify each member of the Company's Indemnified Group against all Losses they may suffer or incur as a consequence of any Claims made against them by the Customer, the Consignor, the Consignee, the Owner or anyone else that arise out of any inaccuracy, incompleteness or omission concerning any of the Goods Details regardless of the cause of the inaccuracy, incompleteness or omission.

10. Entitlement of Company to brokerages, commissions, allowances etc.

The Customer and the Consignor acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) the Company has a pecuniary interest in all contracts (including the Contract) that it enters into during the course of performing the Services;
- (b) the Company is entitled to be paid and retain (or disburse in any manner that it determines in its sole and absolute discretion) all brokerages, commissions, allowances and other remunerations customarily retained by or paid to shipping, clearing and forwarding agents, insurance brokers, customs brokers and agents and any governmental authority.

11. Quotations

Quotations are given by the Company to the Customer or the Consignor on an indicative basis. The Charges are calculated at the rates prevailing at the precise date and time of the Quotation and the Customer and the Consignor acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) the Charges may be subject to review and increase even after the Customer's acceptance of the Quotation and/or issuance of a purchase order, Storage order or packing list due to increases in the cost to the Company in providing the Services (including but not limited to increases in the rates of carriage, customs duty, freight insurance, premiums, storage costs and any other costs and expenses involved in providing the Services and any Transport or Storage Services that are arranged by the Company);
- (b) any such review or increase of the Charges is beyond the control of the Company and shall be solely for the Customer's and the Consignor's account. The Company shall not be obliged to give prior notice of reviews or increases to the Customer or the Consignor; and
- (c) the Company shall have the right to withdraw or revise a Quotation at any time.

12. No reliance by the Customer on information

- (a) The Customer and the Consignor shall not rely on and the Company shall not under any circumstances be liable for Loss or damage resulting from or attributable to any advice, statement, representation or information made by the Company or any of its officers, agents, employees, Sub-Contractors or Related Bodies Corporate contained in a Quotation or otherwise whether oral or in writing regarding the classification of or the liability for, amount, scale or rate of customs duty, excise duty or any other impost or tax applicable to the Goods (Tax or Impost Information).

- (b) the Customer and the Consignor each respectively indemnify each member of the Company's Indemnified Group against all Losses they may suffer or incur as a consequence of any Claims made against them by the Customer, the Consignor, the Consignee, the Owner or anyone else that arise out of the Company and each of its officers, agents, employees, Sub-Contractors and Related Bodies Corporate in respect of any reliance on any Tax or Impost Information or any action taken pursuant to any Tax or Impost Information.

13. Survey of Loss or damage to Goods

The Company may arrange for a survey or surveys of the Goods at the Customer's and Consignor's expense upon the Customer's or Consignor's request or whenever the Company in its sole discretion considers it necessary and may, as agent for the Customer and the Consignor, engage at the Customer's or Consignor's expense, average adjusters, loss assessors, surveyors and other competent persons to study, assess or prepare reports on Loss or damage to the Goods. The Company expressly disclaims any responsibility or liability for the accuracy of any survey or damage report or any other document and shall not in any circumstances be liable for any direct or indirect Loss or damage of any kind that resulting from, arise out of or is consequential upon such survey or report.

14. Charges

- (a) The Customer, the Consignor (or the Owner or Consignor as the case may be) shall be liable for and pay promptly to the Company all Charges as requested and in any event within the number of days as set out in the Company's invoice without set-off or deduction.
- (b) The Customer shall indemnify the Company against all Charges that are incurred by it or are to be incurred by it:
 - (i) in providing the Services; or
 - (ii) in relation to anything concerning or arising out of the Transport or Storage of the Goods or any Services Contract.

15. Interest

- (a) The Company, the Customer and the Consignor respectively agree to pay to each other interest on demand on any moneys that are due and payable but unpaid by any party to another party for 7 days after the due date for payment on any account whatsoever under this Contract.
- (b) Interest must be calculated on the relevant outstanding balance from the due date for the payment of the moneys until, but excluding, the date on which payment is made in full and interest may be recovered as a debt due and owing. For the purpose of this clause, 'interest' means the rate that is 3 percentage points above the Reserve Bank of Australia's "Cash Rate Target" rates during the relevant period.

16. Insurance of the Goods is the Customer's and the Consignor's responsibility

- (a) No insurance will be effected by the Company in relation to the Goods unless there is an express written agreement between the Company, the Customer and the Consignor to insure the Goods. All insurances effected by the Company will be subject to the usual exceptions and conditions of the policies of the relevant insurance company or underwriters.
- (b) Subject to clause 16(a), the Customer and the Consignor acknowledge and agree that it is their responsibility to take out their own Goods insurance if they wish to try and protect themselves from any Losses, damages or costs and expenses that may arise out of any:
 - (i) Loss of or damage to any Goods (including any deterioration, contamination or infestation) or any Loss or damage arising out of any Loss of or damage to any Goods; or
 - (ii) mis-delivery or non-delivery of any Goods or any delay in the delivery of any Goods.

17. Declaration of Value

- (a) In the case of Goods of a value exceeding $AU200 per package or unit or the equivalent of that sum in other currency, the Customer and the Consignor agree that the value will not be declared or inserted in any bill of lading or any waybill by the Company for the purpose of extending any ship owner's or any other type of carrier's liability except upon an express written instruction to do so given in writing to the Company by the Customer or the Consignor.
- (b) In the case of carriage of Goods by air, no special declaration or interest in delivery at destination to increase the carrier's liability under any law will be by the Company except upon an express written instruction to do so given to the Company by the Customer or the Consignor.
- (c) In all other cases where there is a choice of tariff rates according to the extent of the liability assumed by Company as agent for the Customer and the Consignor, no declaration of value (where optional) will be made by the Company for the purpose of extending liability and the Goods will be forwarded or dealt with at the Customer's and the Consignor's risk unless an express written instruction to the contrary is given to the Company by the Customer or the Consignor.

18. Packaging

- (a) The Customer and the Consignor acknowledge and agree that, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing with the Company, the Customer and the Consignor will be responsible for packing the Goods and ensuring that they are fit for Transport and Storage (if Storage is to be arranged) and will be responsible for discharging any obligations under the Chain of Responsibility Law in respect of Goods which the Customer or the Consignor or any of their respective employees, agents, contractors or Related Bodies Corporate have packed.
- (b) All Goods presented to the Company shall be properly and securely packed and shall be in such a condition as not to cause or be likely to cause any Loss or damage. The Company is under no obligation to check that the Goods have been properly packaged but may refuse to accept the Goods if it considers that the manner in which the Goods have been packaged constitutes a risk to the Company, any of its officers, employees, agents, Sub-Contractors or Related Bodies Corporate or any other Person.
- (c) The Company may remove packaging to inspect the Goods and may replace removed packaging with such packaging as it considers appropriate.
- (d) The Company shall not be liable to the Customer, the Consignor, the Consignee or the Owner for any Loss of or damage to the Goods that is in any way attributable to any failure on the part of the Company or any of its officers, employees, agents, Sub-Contractors or Related Bodies Corporate to pack the Goods in any manner required by law or required by the Customer, the Consignor, the Consignee or the Owner.
- (e) The Customer and the Consignor each respectively indemnify each member of the Company's Indemnified Group against all Losses they may suffer or incur as a consequence of any Claims made against them by the Customer, the Consignor, the Consignee, the Owner or anyone else that arise out of anything concerning the packing or repacking or the packaging or repackaging of any Goods.

19. Unclaimed Goods

- (a) Goods which are perishable and are not collected, accepted or claimed immediately upon arrival by the Consignee or which are insufficiently addressed or marked or otherwise not identifiable may be sold or otherwise disposed of as the Company shall see fit without any notice to the Customer, Consignor, Consignee or Owner. Payment or tender by the Company to the Customer of the net proceeds of any sale after deduction of any charges associated with the sale or disposal of the Goods shall be a complete discharge of the Company's responsibility.
- (b) Non-perishable goods which cannot be delivered either because they are insufficiently or incorrectly addressed or because they are not collected, accepted or claimed by the Consignee may be sold, disposed of or returned at the Company's option at any time after the expiration of 21 days from the date of a written notice sent to the last known address of the Customer. All charges and expenses arising in connection with the sale, disposal or return of the Goods shall be paid by the Customer and the Consignor.

- (c) The Customer and the Consignor each respectively indemnify each member of the Company's Indemnified Group against all Losses they may suffer or incur as a consequence of any Claims made against them by the Customer, the Consignor, the Consignee, the Owner or anyone else that arise out of anything concerning the sale, disposal or return of any Goods pursuant to this clause 19.

20. Dangerous Goods

- (a) The Company is not obliged to arrange Transport or Storage of any liquids or Dangerous Goods without the Customer or the Consignor first presenting to the Company with a full written description disclosing the nature of those Goods and the parties reaching agreement in writing regarding the Transport or Storage of the Dangerous Goods.
- (b) Dangerous Goods must be packaged in accordance with the provisions of the Australian Code for the Transport of Dangerous Goods by Road & Rail (edition 7.8, 2022) as amended from time to time) (Australian Dangerous Goods Code) International Transportation Association (IATA) Dangerous Goods Regulations (DGR), or International Maritime Dangerous Goods (IMDG) Code, irrespective of whether dangerous goods have been specified on the Consignment Note or otherwise disclosed to the Company.
- (c) The Customer and the Consignor agree that the Company may refuse to arrange Transport or Storage in respect of any Dangerous Goods.
- (d) If, in the Company's opinion, the Goods are or are liable to become Dangerous Goods or are Dangerous Goods and the Company considers that the condition of the Goods has deteriorated, the Company may at any time and at the Customer's and the Consignor's cost destroy, dispose of, abandon or render them harmless without compensation to the Customer or the Consignor or any Person and without prejudice to the Company's right to any Charges.
- (e) The Customer and the Consignor each respectively indemnify each member of the Company's Indemnified Group against all Losses they may suffer or incur as a consequence of any Claims made against them by the Customer, the Consignor, the Consignee, the Owner or anyone else that arise out of the exercise by the Company of its rights under this clause 20.

21. No Valuables

Except under prior written agreement between the parties, the Company will not accept or arrange Transport or Storage of bullion, coins, precious stones, jewellery, valuables, securities, antiques, pictures, livestock, animal semen or plants and the Company will not accept any liability whatsoever for any such goods except by prior written agreement between the parties.

22. Storage

- (a) Pending forwarding and delivery, the Goods may be put into Storage or held at any place or places at the sole discretion of the Company at the Customer's risk and expense.
- (b) The Customer and the Consignor each respectively indemnify each member of the Company's Indemnified Group against all Losses they may suffer or incur as a consequence of any Claims made against them by the Customer, the Consignor, the Consignee, the Owner or anyone else that arise out of anything concerning the Storage of any Goods pursuant to this clause. However, this indemnity does not apply to the extent that any wrongful act or omission on the part of the Company or any member of the Company's Indemnified Group in regard to the Storage of Goods constitutes Gross Default.

23. No liability of Company for its actions where duty or tariff is affected

The Company shall have no liability or responsibility by virtue of the fact that a change in the rates of duty, wharfage, freight, sailage or cartage or any other tariff occurs before or after the performance by the Company of any act involving a less favourable rate of tariff or by virtue of the fact that a saving may have been effected in some other way had any act or acts been performed at a different time or in a different way and whether its performance of any act or acts is delayed or precipitated through the negligence of the Company or its employees or agents.

24. Exclusions and Limitations

- (a) To the extent permitted by law, the Company, the Customer and the Consignor agree to exclude from the Contract, all conditions, warranties and terms implied by statute, general law or custom.
- (b) The Company, the Customer and the Consignor agree that:
 - (i) under applicable state, territory and Commonwealth law (including the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth)), certain terms, conditions and warranties may be implied in various agreements and rights and remedies may be conferred on consumers which cannot be excluded, restricted or modified by agreement (Non-Excludable Rights);
 - (ii) despite anything in these conditions, the Non-Excludable Rights are not excluded, restricted or modified by these conditions except to the extent permitted by law and the liability of the Company to the Customer or the Consignor for a breach of any Non-Excludable Right will be limited to either:
 - a. supplying the relevant Services (or the relevant item of Services work) again; or
 - b. payment of the cost of having the relevant Services (or the relevant item of Services work) supplied again,at the Company's election; and
 - (iii) (iii) in the case that the Treasury Laws Amendment (More Competition, Better Prices) Act 2022 (C'th) (Unfair Contract Terms Protections) apply to the Customer or the Consignor, these conditions will be deemed to be amended to ensure satisfaction of or compliance with the Unfair Contract Terms Protections.
- (c) Subject to clause 24(e), neither the Company nor any of its officers, agents, employees, Sub-Contractors or Related Bodies Corporate shall be liable to the Customer or the Consignor for any change in the nature or condition of any Goods because of their inherent nature, deterioration in the Goods or evaporation or shrinkage.
- (d) Subject to clause 24(e), the Company, the Customer and the Consignor agree that:
 - (i) all Goods that are accepted, Transported, handled or Stored by the Company or any of its officers, employees, agents, Sub-Contractors or Related Bodies Corporate entirely at the Customer's risk in respect of:
 - a. any Loss of or damage to any Goods (including any deterioration, contamination or infestation) or any Loss or damage arising out of any Loss of or damage to any Goods (Goods Loss or Damage); and
 - b. any mis-delivery or non-delivery of any Goods or any delay in the delivery of any Goods (Delivery or Delay Loss or Damage).
 - (ii) neither the Company nor any of its officers, employees, agents, Sub-Contractors or Related Bodies Corporate have any liability whatsoever to the Customer or the Consignor (whether in contract, tort (including negligence), bailment or otherwise) for:
 - a. Goods Loss or Damage; or
 - b. Delivery or Delay Loss or Damage, and it is their irrevocable intention that the Customer and the Consignor will manage any risks relating to or arising out of Goods Loss or Damage and Delivery or Delay Loss or Damage by taking out insurance and relying on insurance as their sole recourse to compensation in addition to any compensation from the Company they may be entitled to as a consequence of clause 24(e). The Customer and the Consignor will indemnify the Company in full against any claims in subrogation made by the Customer's or the Consignor's insurer against the Company; and

- (iii) if, for any reason other than as provided for in clause 24(e), the Company or any of its officers, employees, agents, Sub-Contractors or Related Bodies Corporate are, despite this clause 24(d), are liable to the Customer or the Consignor for any Loss that falls within the definition of "Goods Loss or Damage" or "Delivery or Delay Loss or Damage" then the liability of the Company or each of its officers, employees, agents, Sub-Contractors or Related Bodies Corporate is strictly limited to the Limited Liability Amount.
- (e) despite anything to the contrary in clause 24(d)(ii) and 24(d)(iii), nothing in this Contract relieves the Company or any of its officers, employees, agents, Sub-Contractors or Related Bodies Corporate from:
 - (i) liability to the Customer or the Consignor for any injury to any person or liability for the death of any person to the extent that the injury or death was caused or contributed to by any negligent act or omission on the part of the Company or the officer, agent employee, Sub-Contractor or Related Body Corporate; and
 - (ii) personal liability to the extent that any Goods Loss or Damage or Delivery or Delay Loss or Damage is caused or contributed to by any Gross Default on the part of the Company or the relevant officer, agent, employee, Sub-Contractor or Related Body Corporate.
- (f) Without limiting anything in clause 24(e), the Customer and the Consignor each respectively indemnify the Company and each member of the Company's Indemnified Group against all Losses they may suffer or incur as a consequence of any Claims made against them by the Customer, the Consignor, the Consignee, the Owner or for Goods Loss or Damage or Delivery or Delay Loss or Damage. However, this indemnity does not apply to the extent that any wrongful act or omission on the part the Company or any member of the Company's Indemnified Group constitutes a Gross Default.
- (g) The Customer and the Consignor each respectively indemnify the Company and each member of the Company's Indemnified Group against all Losses they may suffer or incur as a consequence of any Claims made against them by any Services Provider in relation to any breach of a Services Contract or any other wrongful acts or omissions on the part the Company or any member of the Company's Indemnified Group. However, this indemnity does not apply to the extent that any wrongful act or omission on the part the Company or any member of the Company's Indemnified Group constitutes a Gross Default.
- (h) Nothing in this Contract is intended to limit the liability of any Services Provider other than in circumstances where the Services Provider is the Company or a member of the Company's Indemnified Group.

25. Consequential Loss

Neither party will be liable to any other party under any circumstances whatsoever for any Consequential Loss howsoever arising (whether in contract, tort (including negligence, bailment or otherwise) in respect of anything arising out this Contract or anything concerning the Services any Transport, any Storage or any Goods.

26. Claims

- (a) If the Company is liable to the Customer or the Consignor for any Loss of or damage to any Goods that have been delivered or Stored or for any mis-delivery or non-delivery of any Goods, then no Claim for the Loss or damage may be made by the

Customer or the Consignor against the Company or any of its officers, agents, employees, Sub-Contractors and Related Bodies Corporate unless:

- (i) in the case of damage or Loss arising during Transport, written notice of the Claim together with details of the damage or Loss is given by the Customer or the Consignor to the Company within 7 days of the date of delivery or collection of the relevant Goods (time being of the essence);
 - (ii) in the case of damage or Loss arising during Storage, written notice of the Claim together with details of the damage or Loss is given by the Customer or the Consignor to the Company within 7 days of the date that is the earlier of the date on which the Goods were collected or delivered and the date on which relevant Storage period ended (time being of the essence);
 - (iii) in the case of mis-delivery or non-delivery of any Goods, written notice of the Claim together with details of the Loss or damage Claimed is given by the Customer or the Consignor to the Company within 7 days of that date that the relevant delivery was scheduled to occur or, in the absence of a scheduled delivery date, the date on which delivery was reasonably expected to occur (time being of the essence); and
 - (iv) in the case of defects in any of the Goods, written notice of the Claim together with details of the Loss or damage Claimed is given by the Customer or the Consignor to the Company within 7 days of that date that on which the Goods were collected or delivered (time being of the essence).
- (b) If the Customer or the Consignor is liable to the Company for any Loss of or damage to any of the Company's property as a consequence of any breach of this Contract by the Customer or as a consequence of any negligent or otherwise wrongful acts or omissions on the part of the Customer or the Consignor any of their respective officers, employees, agents contractors or Related Bodies Corporate then, no Claim for the Loss or damage may be made by the Company against the Customer or the Consignor unless written notice of the Claim together with details of the Loss or damage Claimed is given by the Company to the Customer or the Consignor within 7 days of the date that the relevant damage occurred (time being of the essence).
 - (c) If any Claim of the kind specified in this clause 26 is made by the Company, the Customer or the Consignor then, without limiting anything in clauses 26(a) or (b), the party who is the target of the relevant Claim will be absolutely and forever released and discharged from all liability for Loss or damage in relation to the relevant Claim unless formal legal proceedings are initiated and served on the party who is the target of the relevant Claim within 6 months of the relevant 7 day deadline that relates to the relevant Claim under clause 26(a) or 26(b).
 - (d) The Company, the Customer and the Consignor agree that clauses 26(a), (b) and (c) are irrevocably intended to provide the Company, the Customer and the Consignor and their respective officers, employees, agents, contractors or Related Bodies Corporate with absolute and complete defences and limitations to any Claims that they may have against each other at law or in equity in relation to the matters covered in those clauses (Time Barred Claims) and the defences and limitations are respectively available to the Company, the Customer and the Consignor and their respective officers, employees, agents contractors or Related Bodies Corporate as complete defences and absolute bars to any Claims that they make or may wish to make and any Claims that another party makes or wishes to make against them with respect to any of the Time Barred Claims including Claims for breach of this Contract, Claims in negligence or any other tort and Claims based on any other cause of action available at law or in equity.

27. Benefits Conferred Directly on Third Parties

- (a) The Company, the Customer and the Consignor acknowledge and agree that every clause in this Contract that seeks to create, convey or confer any right, defence, bar, exclusion or limitation of liability or the benefit of any indemnity in favour of the Company's officers, agents, employees, Sub-Contractors or Related Bodies Corporate (Third Party Rights) is irrevocably intended to confer on and vest the full legal and equitable benefits of the Third Party Rights in each of the Company's officers, agents, employees, Sub-Contractors and Related Bodies Corporate as if they were each party to and signatories to this Contract in their own names and could enforce the Third Party Rights in their own names directly against the Customer and the Consignee.

- (b) It is agreed that section 11(2) of the Property Law Act 1969 (WA) applies for the benefit of each of the Company's officers, agents, employees, Sub-Contractors and Related Bodies Corporate with respect to the conferral on and vesting of all of the Third Party Rights that arise under clause in each of the Company's officers, agents, employees, Sub-Contractors and Related Bodies Corporate.
- (c) The Company, the Customer or the Consignor acknowledge and agree that clause 27(a) is intended to apply mutatis mutandis to provide a reciprocal benefit for each of the Customer's and the Consignor's respective officers, agents, employees, contractors and Related Bodies Corporate.

28. No Assignment

The Company, the Customer and the Consignor must not assign any of their respective rights or interests under this Contract without the written consent of the other party. Any purported assignment on contravention of this clause is invalid, unenforceable and otherwise void.

29. Force Majeure

Neither the Company, the Customer nor the Consignor will be liable under any circumstances for any failure by either of them to perform any of their respective obligations under this Contract in circumstances where they are or were unable to perform an obligation or are or were delayed in performing an obligation due to any Force Majeure event.

30. Governing Law

The Contract is governed by and must be construed under the laws of the State of Western Australia and the parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that State.

31. Variations and waivers

- (a) Neither party is bound by any waiver, discharge or release of a condition or any agreement which varies these conditions unless it is in writing and signed by both parties.
- (b) If any party waives a breach of this Contract, the waiver does not operate as a waiver of another breach of the same or any other condition or as a continuing waiver.

32. Lien

- (a) The Company has a general lien on the Goods (including any documents relating to the Goods) and on any other goods of the Customer, Consignor, Owner or Consignee for all Charges due or which become due on any account either in respect of the Goods or for any other monies due by the Customer, Consignor, Owner or Consignee to the Company. If any monies due to the Company are not paid within 30 days of a written notice, then the Company may and in the case of perishable Goods, immediately:
 - (i) Store the Goods as the Company thinks fit at the Customer's risk and expense (with additional Charges to run for the Storage), or
 - (ii) open any package and sell all or any of the Goods as the Company thinks fit and apply the proceeds to discharge the lien and costs of sale; and the Goods may be sold by auction or otherwise at the sole discretion of the Company.

- (b) The Customer and the Consignor each respectively indemnify each member of the Company's Indemnified Group against all Losses they may suffer or incur as a consequence of any Claims made against them by the Customer, the Consignor, the Owner, the Consignee or anyone else that arise out of the exercise by the Company of its rights under this clause 32. However, this indemnity does not apply to the extent that any wrongful act or omission on the part the Company or any member of the Company's Indemnified Group constitutes a Gross Default.
